UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

In accordance with Local Rules of Practice for the United States District Court for the District of Nevada (“LR”) 26-4, Defendant Albertson’s LLC (“Defendant”), by and through its counsel of record, the law firm of BACKUS | BURDEN, and Plaintiff Victoria Abina (“Plaintiff”), by and through her counsel of record, RUIZ LAW FIRM, hereby stipulate and agree to an extension of all remaining discovery deadlines by thirty (30) days. The parties propose the following revised discovery plan (new information in bold italics):

Pursuant to Local Rule 6-1(b), the Parties hereby aver that this is the first such discovery extension requested in this matter. Moreover, pursuant to Local Rule 26-3, it is respectfully submitted that the Parties' failure to request the instant extension of discovery twenty-one (21) days prior to the deadline for initial expert disclosure was the result of excusable neglect. Specifically noting the failure to request the extension of was a mere oversight by the Parties.

Bateman v. U.S. Postal Service, 231 F.3d 1220 (9th Cir. 2000). Further: 1) there is no danger of prejudice as the extension is stipulated by the Parties; 2) a one hundred eighty (180) day extension will not impact a trial date because the same has not been scheduled; 3) the Parties, their respective Counsel, and witnesses have been limited in appearing for deposition due to the Covid-19 pandemic; and 4) the requested extension is made in good faith by both Parties. Pioneer Investment Services v. Brunswick Associate's, Ltd., 507 U.S. 380, 395 (1993).

7 III.

8 REASONS WHY DISCOVERY WAS NOT COMPLETED WITHIN TIME SET BY
9 DISCOVERY PLAN

10 This request is two-fold. First, the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic and now increase in RSV
11 patients has made conducting depositions – especially depositions of physicians, many of whom have 12 an understandably increased workflow and decreased availability – and other discovery-related tasks
13 more difficult. Second, Defendant's factual and corporate representatives have decreased availability
14 during the December holiday season. Defendant's 30(b)(6) Corporate Witness' deposition has been 15 scheduled for March 8, 2023. As such, the parties agree to extend discovery deadlines for ninety 16 (90) days.

17 Further, the Parties wish to investigate this case by completing the depositions of important
18 witnesses prior to initial expert disclosures in an effort to determine if resolution of this matter
19 may be reached prior to incurring fees and costs associated with disclosing experts and their 20 respective opinions. The parties have entered into this agreement in good faith and not for 21 purposes of delay.

22 Following the deposition of Plaintiff and Defendant's FRCP 30(b)(6) Witness, the parties
23 entered settlement negotiations. While discussions continue – if settlement cannot be reached
24 directly – the parties have also discussed exploring alternative dispute resolution through possible
25 private mediation or by requesting judicial assistance in the form of a settlement conference.

The Parties have stipulated to a Settlement Conference, which is currently scheduled December 15, 2023 before Magistrate Weksler. The instant discovery extension allows the Parties to focus on potential resolution without incurring additional fees and costs.

The parties have entered into this agreement in good faith and not for purposes of delay.
